

House Rules of Off-Screen

This document contains the additional internal regulations of O-Screen as agreed upon during General Member Assemblies, according to Art. 22 (twenty-two) of O-Screen's Statutes, which are registered under the seal of the Royal Notary Association of The Netherlands (KvK).

Excerpt from Off-Screen's KvK registration as a legal entity:

NL: Huishoudelijk reglement.

Artikel 22.

I. De algemene vergadering kan een huishoudelijk reglement vaststellen, wijzigen, aanvullen of opheffen.

II. Het huishoudelijk reglement mag niet in strijd zijn met de wet, ook war die geen dwingend recht bevat, noch met de statuten.

EN: House Rules.

Article 22.

I. General Members Assemblies may adopt, amend, supplement, or cancel internal regulations.

II. The internal regulations may not conflict with the law, even if the law does not explicitly require compliance, nor with the statutes of the association.

Internal Organization of Off-Screen:

The association comprises six committees and several organs. It includes a Board, with each member assigned to a committee responsible for organizing activities and generating content. In addition to the Board, there are three distinct bodies: the Application Committee, the Board of Advice, and the Board of Finance. The Application Committee's role is to select potential Board members. The Board of Advice provides guidance and assistance to the current Board. The Board of Finance is responsible for overseeing the Treasurer's duties. Further details regarding these entities can be found delineated in the articles of the House Rules.

The Board of Off-Screen

Article 1

- I. The Board will hold weekly meetings, with the possibility of deviation if necessary. However, a minimum of one meeting every two weeks is mandatory.
- II. The Board members will divide their responsibilities and present their Policy Plan during the first General Member Assembly (GMA) of the academic year. The Board has the flexibility to internally and externally alter their responsibilities, provided consultation takes place.
- III. Board members are required to attend all Off-Screen events, although exceptions can be made within the Board.
- IV. The Board will present its Policy Plan and Budget during the first GMA of the academic year. Members must vote to accept the Policy Plan and Budget according to the regulations outlined in the "Regulations Voting Process" document. Additionally, the Treasurer from the previous Board will present their Budget Realization from the preceding year.
- V. At least twice a year, once halfway through the academic year and once at the end of the same year, the Board will present their results, along with any changes in their Policy Plan and Budget Realization.
- VI. The Board and committee members involved in organizing a trip or event will receive a 10% discount on the total price of that trip or event. However, the Board has the final decision in this matter.

Board of Advice*Article 2*

- I. The Board appoints a Board of Advice (BoA) each year.
- II. The Board has the authority to suspend or dismiss a member or the entire BoA.
- III. The BoA for the next academic year will be selected and announced before the beginning of that academic year, during the first GMA.
- IV. The BoA will comprise several members determined by the Board, with a minimum of two members.
- V. The BoA is exclusively composed of previous Board members, although this is not limited to the immediately preceding year.
- VI. The BoA must include at least one member from the previous BoA.
- VII. Former Board members can apply for the BoA by submitting an application letter to the current Board.
- VIII. One member of the BoA will be part of the Board of Finance (BoF).
- IX. The BoA will advise the Board in the development of their Policy Plan.
- X. The BoA will meet with the Board quarterly to discuss performance evaluations within the Board.

Board of Finance*Article 3*

- I. The Treasurer appoints a Board of Finance (BoF) each year.
- II. The BoF consists of at least two members, one of whom must be a member of the BoA.
- III. The BoF is responsible for reviewing the Treasurer's biannual realization and final statement.
- IV. It is desirable for at least one BoF member to be from another association and possess additional knowledge or skills in finances.
- V. The Treasurer must meet with at least one BoF member before every GMA.

- VI. The BoF must thoroughly review Conscribo on a biannual basis.
- VII. The Treasurer has the authority to suspend or dismiss a member or the entire BoF.
- VIII. The Board of Finance must be consulted before any single payment exceeding €1500 is made.

Application Committee

Article 4

- I. The Application Committee (ApCo) consists of three to five members.
- II. At least one ApCo member must be from the current Board.
- III. At least one ApCo member must not be from the current Board.
- IV. At least one member of the new ApCo must be from the previous ApCo.
- V. It is desirable for at least one ApCo member to be from outside of O-Screen.
- VI. ApCo members cannot apply for a position on the new Board.
- VII. The new ApCo will be introduced during the second GMA by the previous ApCo.
- VIII. The new ApCo must be approved during a GMA before they can initiate the application process.
- IX. The ApCo will receive application letters and resumes from all candidates applying for the new Board. After a preliminary round, the ApCo will invite all applicants to one or more interviews.
- X. The ApCo is bound by confidentiality and will only report on interviews of candidates nominated for the new Board. Candidates must provide consent for their interviews and qualifications to be reported. The ApCo may disclose the number of applications and interviews conducted during the GMA.
- XI. If the nominated Board is not accepted during the GMA, the ApCo has two weeks to nominate a new Board.
- XII. The ApCo is not allowed to vote during the voting process for the new Board.

Committee Members

Article 5

- I. Committee members are selected by the respective Board member in charge of the committee, based on their selection criteria such as a motivational letter and interview.
- II. Committees preferably consist of four to seven members.
- III. Committee members serve for the duration of one academic year.
- IV. Committee meetings are mandatory for all members unless alternative arrangements are made.
- V. Each committee preferably holds a weekly meeting, with a minimum frequency of one meeting every other week. However, the respective Board member has the authority to decide the meeting schedule.
- VI. Committee members are expected to participate in their committee's activities unless alternative arrangements are made.
- VII. Attendance at General Member Assemblies is mandatory for all committee members unless alternative arrangements are made.
- VIII. The Board can suspend or dismiss committee members.
- IX. Committees headed by the President, Vice President, and Treasurer may have a Committee Coordinator to provide support in internal coordination and committee work, as deemed necessary by the committee head.
- X. Committee Coordinators hold an equal position to committee members and do not have a hierarchical distinction.
- XI. The head of Social Activities may appoint one committee member as an Awareness Person to provide additional support for the general safety of a party, a person, or a group of people, and aid the Committee Head in de-escalating the situation.
- XII. The Awareness Person holds an equal position to committee members and does not have a hierarchical distinction.

Members

Article 6
